THE HOME STRETCH

DAY 7: Extreme Makeover: Home Edition Delaware Visit

Local Company Builds Two Dream Homes for Needy Families

Who: Anderson Homes and hundreds of workers and volunteers race against the clock to finish the Latif family and Rose Morgan's homes.

What: Construction crews worked all day and night to complete the interior of the Latif and Morgan homes. Monday afternoon Anderson Homes will turn the keys over to the Extreme Makeover: Home Edition design team in preparation for Tuesday when the new home is revealed.

When: Events are scheduled from Feb 5-12
Additional Press Opportunities:
1 to 3 p.m.—Mayor Jim Baker will officially rename the section of South Clayton Street where the Latif and Morgan homes are to James Way.
2 p.m.—Congressman Mike Castle to visit the site.

Where: 32 and 34 South Clayton Street
Wilmington, DE 19805
For map and directions to build site, visit www.AndersonExtreme.com

Details: The interior work at the Latif and Morgan family homes is almost complete. Wallpaper and painting are being finished and flooring is nearly complete. All of the appliances and cabinets have been installed, a new concrete sidewalk was completed and final landscaping work is in progress.

The crew is currently in need of energy drinks (specifically Red Bull), sports drinks and soda. Any large donations should be delivered directly to the site, while smaller donations should be delivered to the Frawley Stadium shuttle area.

The build site will be active 24/7 until the new home is revealed next Tuesday. Media is encouraged to check in at the volunteer site 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. to receive media credentials. Media ID is required at site check-in. Daily media advisories will be distributed electronically and are also available at www.AndersonExtreme.com. The spectator area will be open daily today from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Volunteers or those interested in making a donation should visit www.AndersonExtreme.com.
