

MEDIA ADVISORY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Feb. 12, 2008

MEDIA CONTACT: Maria Stearns

Aloysius Butler & Clark

Office: (302) 655-1552

Cell: (302) 275-1702

Mstearns@a-b-c.com

“MOVE THAT BUS!”

The Reveal: Extreme Makeover: Home Edition Delaware Visit

Who: The Latif family and Grandma Rose return home from Disney World to see their beautiful new homes.

What: On Tuesday, construction crews worked all morning on the final touch ups, and then turned the keys over to the design team so furniture can be moved in and decorating can begin.

When: Events are scheduled from Feb. 5 to 13

Additional Press Opportunities:

11 a.m.-2 p.m.— “Move that bus” - the new home is revealed to the family

Where: 32 and 34 James Way (formerly South Clayton Street)
Wilmington, DE 19805

Details: The moment we’ve all been waiting for! Today, the Latif and Morgan families get their first look at the incredible homes thousands of spectators have been watching take shape before their eyes this past week. Just six days after crews demolished the Latif and Morgan family homes on South Clayton Street, the families will step into their brand new dream homes created by Anderson Homes. It’s also the day hundreds of local fans of the hit show will get to yell in unison with Ty Pennigton, “Bus driver, move that bus!”

Instructions for the reveal:

All media is welcome and encouraged to be there for the reveal. Cameras are welcome to shoot any part of it from the designated media area, however, no live shots are permitted from the site this day.

NOTE: The family will not be available to talk until the press conference Wednesday morning at 11 a.m. in front of the house.

Daily media advisories are available at www.AndersonExtreme.com. Media ID is required at site check-in. The spectator area will be open today from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Those interested in making a donation should visit www.AndersonExtreme.com.

###