GENEROUS DONATIONS CONTINUE TO CHANGE THE LIFE OF THE LATIF FAMILY

ING and Discover Bank make extreme donations to the family.

Wilmington, DE – Now that the Extreme Makeover: Home Edition crew is moving out of Delaware, their visit is something that the Latif family and next-door neighbor Rose Morgan will never forget. In addition to receiving two new homes, the family also received the following items during an Anderson Homes press conference today:

- ING – $125,000 to pay off the Latifs' mortgage
- Discover Bank – Four $25,000 savings accounts, one for each of Ju-Juanna Latif's children
- University of Delaware – Upon admission, full tuition, room and board for each of the children
- Adventure Aquarium - $5,000 gift to the family
- Kid Shelleen's – $3,600 raised during a family fundraiser
- Safeway Cargill – $1,000 gift certificate for steaks
- Grotto's Pizza – Two pizzas a week for a year
- Wilmington Blue Rocks – Season tickets for life for the family and 1,500 donated tickets for Extreme Makeover: Home Edition/Anderson Homes night
- Pride Klean, Inc. – Cleaning services for one year
- Boys and Girls Clubs of Delaware – Free lifetime memberships for the children
- YMCA – Free lifetime membership for the family
- City of Wilmington – Approximately $500 from the recycling that took place during the project
- Perry Anthony Salon – $300 gift certificates for a full day at the salon for Ju-Juanna Latif and Rose Morgan
- Raylon Beauty Supply – A basket of beauty and hair care products
- Reading ASSIST Institute – Any reading assistance for the children
- The Delaware Academy, Paul Mitchell – Full makeovers for the family.
